NOTES/DOODLES/REFLECTIONS

This calendar is a collection of original artworks which you can color and make your own!

Enjoy a creative pause while you slow down to contemplate with color and flow with the energy of each season.

Mark world holidays and seasonal rhythms like World Kindness Day & Summer Solstice. Be well.

New Moon

setting new intentions and starting new projects

Full Moon

reflection and letting go of what no longer serves you

All moon phases in this calendar are listed in UTC (Coordinated Universal Time). Depending on your time zone, the visible phase may occur one calendar day earlier or later in your local time. The holidays included reflect our family's cultural roots (Ukraine and Korea), alongside US and select global observances. There are many more beautiful holidays worldwide and I wish we could include them all.
